

Bilingual Newborn Calf Care Training

Join us for this training session to learn how to care for newborn calves! This one-day event includes a classroom session and hands-on training. Teaching is in English and Spanish, and native speakers of both languages are invited.

Date: August 8

Burk-Lea Farms, 2962 Grand Point Rd., Chambersburg, PA 17202

Date: August 9

Brubaker Farms, 493 Musser Rd, Mount Joy, PA 17552

Instructors:

Ernest Hovingh, DVM, PhD, Penn State Department of Veterinary and Biomedical Sciences

Marcela Martinez, MS, Milk Quality/Herd Management Specialist, Agri-Service LLC

This event is organized by Agri-Service LLC and Ag Workforce Development.

To register, call 301-223-6877. $100 per person.

SCHEDULE

9:30 Registration

10:00 a.m. Presentations

Importance of healthy, living calves • Causes of newborn calf deaths •
Evaluating newborn calf health • Reviving newborn calves after difficult calving •
Colostrum management • Sanitation

NOON LUNCH

Hands-On Activities

Evaluating calf health scoring • Reviving a Calf • Fecal sampling •
Colostrum testing and feeding • Using the esophageal feeder •
Use of electrolytes to hydrate sick calves • Evaluating newborn calf environment

2:30 pm Adjourn

Agri-Service and Ag Workforce Development hold bilingual training for dairy farmers and employees. Teaching is in English and Spanish, and includes hands-on training. For more information, and to learn about future training sessions, contact Ron Gumpf or Richard Stup.

Ron Gumpf

Phone: 717-729-2070

Email: ron.gumpf@agriservicellc.com

Richard Stup

Phone: 570-939-5081

Email: richstup@gmail.com

SPONSORS

Franklin Feed & Supply Co.

Sporting
Valley
Feeds